Service summary

Name of service	St John of God Midland Hospital
Contact details	Phone: (08) 9462 4000 (Hospital switchboard) Mobile: 0437 985 400 (during office hours) Palliative Care Team (consultant and clinical nurse consultant) General enquiries: Palliative Care Team: 0437 985 400 Monday to Friday (during office hours)
Hours of service	Monday to Friday 8:00 am to 4:00 pm
After hours	Palliative Care Outreach Service 1300 558 655
Street address	Clayton Street, Midland WA 6056
Website address	www.sjog.org.au/midland
Service type	• Inpatient consultation – Palliative Care Consultant and Clinical Nurse Consultant.
Service profile	Consultancy service in public and private hospital. Comprehensive medical, nursing, and allied health care based on the unique needs of the patient, carer, and family when facing a life limiting prognosis including: • symptom assessment and management • psychological and social support • providing quality care for patients approaching the end-of-life • assistance with clinical decision making • coordination of care from hospital to community or hospice • bereavement support. Full range of clinical services are available on site including pathology and radiology.

Name of service	St John of God Midland Hospital
Allied Health Service	Access to generalist allied health professionals, including: • Aboriginal liaison officer • chaplain • dietician • occupational therapist • pharmacist • physiotherapist • social worker.
Admission criteria	Progressive life-limiting diseases (malignant or non malignant) admitted under treat team requiring specialist palliative care support.
Referral process	Medical referrals – contact the Palliative Care Team on 0437 985 400.
Palliative care discharge criteria	Based on discretion of the Palliative Care Team in discussion with the primary treating team.
Niche services	• Speech Pathology and Dietician Outpatient Review • Volunteers.

WCP-013648 NOV'26